PAKISTAN POLO ASSOCIATION (PPA)

1. PPA is the supreme organization in the country responsible for all polo activities. The history of polo dates back to over 2,000 years in Persia, India, China and Japan. In 1891 the Indian Polo Association was formed, however, Pakistan Polo Association was formed after partition in 1947. The Punjab Challenge Polo Cup is the oldest and one of the most beautiful cups being played at Lahore, having first been played in 1886. The Quaid-e-Azam Gold Cup (National Open Championship) which is the most prestigious tournament in the country, is also held at Lahore and played since its inception in 1963. There are a total of 16 polo clubs in Pakistan which are affiliation with PPA. PPA itself is affiliated with Hurlingham Polo Association (HPA) and Federation of International Polo (FIP).

2. Aim & Scope of Organization

- a. The Association shall make every effort to support, promote and control the game of polo, safeguard the interest of affiliated clubs and individual members and co-ordinate their efforts at regional, national and international level.
- b. The Association, as the governing body of polo in Pakistan, shall have the power and authority to make and alter rules of polo being universally accepted. The Association shall regulate and control all matters affecting the national conduct of the game. It shall administer functions through an Executive Committee.

3. Constitutional Setup
